About Me

I am an avid football fan, and like to spend a lot of my spare time going to watch Bradford City, as well as watching some of the smaller local teams. Music plays a big part of my life, and I have a small studio at home where I like to mix music together as well as produce it.

I try to be as active as I can, and enjoy walking around the Yorkshire Dales and the Lake District. I play squash and badminton, and enjoy a round of golf. I'm a very social person with a wide circle of friends, and enjoy dining out as well as watching my favourite DJ's playing venues up and down the country.

I hold a full UK driving licence.
